

The Smithsonian is coming TO THE CROSSROADS OF CEDAR KEY!

CEDAR KEY LIBRARY 460 Second Street

SEPT. 8 - OCT. 20

Museum on Mainstreet presents...

Crossroads: Change in Rural America

The future is bright for much of rural America as small towns embrace the notion that their citizens and their cultural uniqueness are important assets. More about the exhibit and it's content can be found on the Smithsonian's website at www.museumonmainstreet.org

Exhibits can be seen:

September 8th - October 20th

Cedar Key Public Library
460 Second Street, Top Floor
Sunday thru Thursday (1PM - 4PM)
Friday thru Saturday (10AM - 4PM)

Bonish Studio, 582 2nd Street

This community, these waters, the lay of the land and sea are some of the sights we would like to share with you. The sights we have had the pleasure of photographing, that some folks may never get the chance to view. Please join us at the crossroad for a view through our eyes of Cedar Key.

Thursday thru Saturday (11AM - 10PM)
Unavailable September 27th - 30th

Special Events in Cedar Key:

Saturday and Sunday, September 15th & 16th

Plain Air Arts Event

Artists in various mediums (painters, jewelry, woodwork, etc) will be creating on the streets and crossroads of Cedar Key. Maps of artist locations and times available at Cedar Key Keyhole and Cedar Key Welcome Center. September 16th, from 4-6PM Cedar Key Arts Center Gallery will host a reception for the community to view artists plain air works plus additional art, with light refreshments. Cedar Key Arts Center, 457 2nd Street.

Saturday, September 15th & 16th

Bonish Studio 11AM-10PM

Driving the 28 miles from the nearest highway down the long straight road into Cedar Key may seem to take forever but it all pays off once you cross that first bridge. Visitors reach a place filled with wildlife, working men and women, and just about anything to do with the water. A town that time has been gently leading into the 20th century. This community, these waters, the lay of the land and sea are some of the sights we would like to share with you. The sights we have had the pleasure of photographing, that some folks may never get the chance to view. Please join us at the crossroad for a view through our eyes of Cedar Key. 582 2nd Street.

Saturday, September 15th

International Coastal Clean-Up 7AM-12PM

Join the City of Cedar Key, Cedar Key Aquaculture Association, and UF IFAS for the annual International Coastal Cleanup event in Cedar Key. Volunteers receive a free lunch and t-shirt (while supplies last). To participate, simply show up and check in at the Cedar Key City Marina as early as 7 AM to pick up trash bags and get assigned to an area. We also need help counting and sorting the items collected and if you want to help with this part, head on down to the Marina around 10:30 AM. Please bring your own gloves! City of Cedar Key Marina.

Saturday, September 22nd

UF Ribbon Cutting Anniversary 10AM-3PM

The UF IFAS Nature Coast Biological Station will host an Open House for the public. UF faculty and staff will offer booths and displays highlighting research and education work in the region, including live sea creatures and hands-on activities.

UF/IFAS Nature Coast Biological Station, 552 First Street.

Friday, Saturday, and Sunday September 28th-30th

Riverboats & Railroads 10AM-4PM

An exhibit of model railroads and Suwannee River riverboats by the Ocala Model Railroads' Restoration Society and Levy County Historical Society presents the history of railroading and riverboat transportation. Cedar Key Community Center, 809 Sixth Street.

Thursday, October 4th

Cedar Key Crossroads Video Premier and 7PM-9PM

One of the key opportunities "Crossroads" presents is community dialogue. Take this time to engage in conversation and displays about our past, present, and future of Cedar Key. The video of Crossroads in Cedar Key are cultural stories through different points of view from our citizens.

Cedar Key Community Center, 609 6th Street.

Saturday and Sunday October 6th & 7th

Cedar Key Historical Society Museum 11AM-4PM

A variety of exhibits and photographs depicting the unique history of Cedar Key from prehistoric times through the 20th century are housed in the historic Lutterloh Building and Andrews House. Fees waived. Cedar Key Historical Society Museum, 609 Second Street.

Saturday October 13th

Golf Cart Tour 10AM TOUR & 3PM TOUR

Join our golf cart convoy for a historic tour of the island. Learn about Cedar Key's rich history and how this island has impacted life here and continues to be a critical part of its evolution. Golf carts will be provided. Limited to 40 people per trip. Meet at the Crossroads (SR 24 and Second Street).

Saturday and Sunday, October 20th-21st

Cedar Keys' 49th Annual Seafood Festival 10AM-5PM

This major event features arts and crafts exhibits along Second Street and great local seafood and music in the City Park. Parade on Saturday morning at 11 am.

Visit cedarkey.org for more information

Smithsonian Institution